

All About Apples

BRAEBURN

Braeburn apples are red and round with green under-striping. With a very crispy, tart-sweet taste they are delicious eaten in salads, with mild cheeses or simply out of hand. Braeburns hold their shape when cooked.

EMPIRE

Empire apples are round, medium sized and dark-red in colour with a slightly tart flavour.

FUJI

Fuji Apples are red and round with green under-striping. With a honey-sweet taste and very crisp texture, they're ideal an ideal eating apple.

GRANNY SMITH APPLE

Granny Smith are large and round with a bright green colour. They have a tart flavour and a firm, crisp texture, making them good for baking and eating.

GOLDEN DELICIOUS

Golden Delicious apples are large, yellow and have a rich, sweet flavour that makes them a refreshing snack.

MCINTOSH

McIntosh apples are bright red with green undertones. They have a distinctive aroma and delicious, tangy flavour. They're great to eat out of hand and make excellent baking apples.

SPARTAN

Spartan apples are bright red with green undertones and have snowy white flesh. They have a notably sweet flavour and soft smooth texture, and make excellent baking apples.

RED DELICIOUS

Red Delicious apples are bright red apples with a distinctive, elongated shape and a creamy, pale-yellow flesh. They are traditionally known for their sweet flavour and are a great snacking apple.

ROYAL GALA

Royal Gala apples have bright orange-red striping over a yellow skinned flesh and are incredibly sweet and crisp.

